VIGNAL GROUP acquires INTERSIGNALETIC

VIGNAL GROUP announces the acquisition of INTERSIGNALETIC from its CEO Guillaume Fayolle. Based in Chaponost, in the Lyon region (France), INTERSIGNALETIC specializes in the design and manufacture of temporary mobile signalling products, such as service luminous triangles, vehicle lighting equipment and emergency lights...

INTERSIGNALETIC is currently the French leader in its various product lines for fire-fighting vehicle equipment.

This acquisition will enable VIGNAL GROUP to strengthen its position in the emergency vehicles market, one of its strategic areas of development.

With this acquisition, the Group will exceed sales of 200 million euros.

Jean-Louis Coutin, President of VIGNAL GROUP, declared: "VIGNAL is pursuing its growth strategy through targeted acquisitions, in order to strengthen its position in technological businesses and/or acquire new product lines. The integration of INTERSIGNALETIC into the group will enable us to develop synergies to offer more products and services to all our customers."

Guillaume Fayolle, President of INTERSIGNALETIC, declared: "With my team, I am proud to have made INTERSIGNALETIC a recognized major player in the French firefighting market. Our products are manufactured in France and are the result of a know-how that I am happy to perpetuate through our integration and my long-term involvement within the VIGNAL GROUP. I am convinced that this integration will enable us to intensify the company's development in France and abroad".
